The New Mid-Season Styles In Ivy Corsets

Our well-known Ivy Corset is now being shown by us in an unusually large and varied assortment of mid-season styles. The Ivy is our exclusive corset, and can only be obtained in Washington at our corset salon.

The styles of the Ivy are authentic and the very latest. The materials, which are mostly broches, in white and pink, are excellent, and the making unsurpassed; for that reason they hold their shape and give splendid service.

The slender figure finds numbers of styles in the Ivy which are perfectly adapted to its particular use. They are low in bust or with elastic waistline, lightly boned and give just enough support. Shown in the soft pink broches and plain coutil, and in medium-priced corsets.

Plenty of firmer or heavier models for the larger figures, with strength and durability enough to give satisfaction to every wearer. Well-boned, medium in bust and of good length skirt.

Priced from $1.00 to $7.50.
